Contract type: Fixed-term for 12 months with possibility of extension

Role Summary:

Wiltshire Mind is a local mental health charity. Our Counselling Service is a busy, well-established counselling service for people across the county of Wiltshire. We also provide counselling training placements to trainees on counselling diplomas.

We are recruiting a Service Delivery Assistant. This role will include conducting counselling initial assessment appointments and, also holding wellbeing calls. It will also involve building relationships with the Counsellors within the charity in order to be able to allocate clients to the appropriate counsellor. A counselling qualification is essential to the role and experience of holding counselling assessments would be an advantage. The successful candidate will work closely with our Counselling Lead and Counselling Co-ordinator to ensure the smooth running of this part of the service.

The role is subject to receiving satisfactory references, DBS check and a probationary period.

The hours will be 9.5 per week, the days and times of which are negotiable between the hours of 9am and 3pm, Monday to Friday.

Some evening work may be required, on occasion.

We are an equal opportunities employer and welcome applications from all sections of the community.

Job Description:

Service Delivery Assistant Duties:

- 1. Conduct initial assessment appointments with clients wishing to access the Wiltshire Mind counselling service either by telephone or face to face, when possible.
- 2. Assess the needs of clients and work with clients to decide if their needs will be met by the service offered.
- 3. Signpost clients where appropriate.
- 4. Liaise with local services where needed.
- 5. Build and maintain relationships with Volunteer Counsellors.
- 6. Allocate clients to the appropriate counsellors considering levels of training, specialisms and qualifications.
- 7. Communicate with Counselling Lead and Counselling Co-ordinator regarding waiting lists.
- 8. Manage the assessment diary.
- 9. Maintain and manage paperwork associated to counselling assessments.
- 10. Hold telephone wellbeing calls.
- 11. Contact service users that have requested support in order to explore their needs.
- 12. Attend regular clinical supervision provided by Wiltshire Mind.
- 13. Maintain documents relating to wellbeing calls across the service.
- 14. Liaise with all other wellbeing supporters on a weekly basis.
- 15. Communicate with clients by email, telephone

Service Monitoring & Evaluation:

- 16. Maintain appropriate record keeping systems in line with data protection requirements.
- 17. Ensure relevant monitoring documentation is completed and recorded.
- 18. Promote the needs of the charity in order to encourage donations for counselling sessions and assessments.

Please note this job description is intended to outline the main duties of the post and may change as the post and service develops.
