

Job Description

Qualified Counsellor

Young People

Salary:	Pay Scale £14.00 per hour
Hours:	Part-time (7 hours per week - 3.30pm – 7pm, 2 days per week, days negotiable).
Location:	Melksham, Wiltshire, currently working online.
Reporting to:	Head of Service Delivery
Contract type:	Fixed-term for 3 months.

Role Summary

Wiltshire Mind is a local mental health charity. Our Counselling Service is a busy, well-established counselling service for people across the county of Wiltshire. We also provide counselling training placements to trainees on counselling diplomas.

We are recruiting for a Qualified Young People's Counsellor on a fixed term of 3 months in order to support demand for our counselling service for 11-17 year olds. This position requires an experienced practitioner both face-to-face and using online methods with organisational membership. It is essential to have experience of integrative counselling and assessments and working in an organisational setting. The successful candidate will hold a caseload of counselling clients and will also be responsible for assessing new clients into the service. Experience and practice in counselling children and young people is also integral to the role with an ability to use creative and talking therapies. The successful candidate will work closely with the Head of Service Delivery, Young People's Counselling Co-ordinator and existing Young People's Counsellors in order to fulfil requirements of the charity and to constantly seek to improve the service.

The successful candidate will need to demonstrate high levels of professionalism and exhibit a keen interest in the charity and the values that it seeks to uphold.

The role is subject to receiving satisfactory references, Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check and a probationary period. This position is for a 3 month fixed term contract for 7 hours per week over 2 days.

For full details see www.wiltshiremind.co.uk

CLOSING DATE 26th February 2021

Job Description:

To be responsible for a counselling caseload of up to 6 clients per week between the ages of 11 and 17.

Role Responsibilities:

1. To commit to building a therapeutic relationship with clients on a weekly basis in the office in Melksham, Wiltshire or online when the office is closed.
2. To be able to communicate effectively with young people.
3. To have experience of counselling children and young people.
4. To have the ability to listen to young people and understand their needs.
5. To help to build children and young people’s resilience through talking, creative work and play.
6. To help children and young people to cope with wide-ranging and often complex social issues including bullying, bereavement, domestic violence, family breakdown, neglect and trauma.
7. To undertake initial assessments for clients and to ensure that they fit within the clinical boundaries of the service.
8. To liaise closely with the Young People’s Counselling Service Co-ordinator and Head of Service Delivery in order to ensure smooth operational running of the service.
9. To work with the Head of Service Delivery by providing feedback and offering suggestions for improvement to the service.
10. To meet the requirements of the service with regards to boundaries, confidentiality and safeguarding.
11. To attend adequate professional supervision which will be provided by Wiltshire Mind.
12. To be prepared to continue education and professional training.
13. To maintain appropriate record keeping systems in line with the charity and data protection requirements.
14. To ensure that clients are offered to evaluate the service upon completion of their counselling sessions.
15. Consider and act on safeguarding issues within the service.

Person Specification:

Training/Qualifications/Attainments:

Essential	Desirable
Recognised qualification in counselling or psychotherapy Level 4
Recognised qualification in Counselling for Children and Young People
Evidence of significant post-qualifying continuous professional development specifically with regards to Children and Young People	Training in adult and child safeguarding
Membership of professional body, preferably BACP or UKCP	Accredited with a professional body

Experience:

Essential	Desirable
Ability to carry out assessments and provide counselling
Significant recent clinical experience
Experience of working in an organisational setting	Experience of delivering counselling in the voluntary sector
Experience of working in a time-limited counselling approach.
Experience of counselling at different levels and using various techniques for the benefit of young people.
Having an understanding of Attachment Theory.

Skills:

Essential	Desirable
Ability to assess client's needs and risks including those with complex issues
Excellent interpersonal skills and ability to maintain clear boundaries
Strong team working ethos.
Ability to communicate effectively with clients, colleagues and management, both verbally and in writing
Case recording and monitoring skills

General:

Essential	Desirable
Ability to work well within a team
Experience of working independently and managing own workload
Willingness to contribute to the charitable aims of the organisation

How to apply:

To enquire about the role and request an application form, please either call or email Philippa Collins using the details below:

01225 706532 | philippa.collins@wiltshiremind.co.uk